Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

With 1,575 students enrolled in grades nine through twelve, Easley High School offers a variety of special programs including 15 advanced placement courses involving 290 students participating in 510 AP exams; honors courses in English, math, science, social studies, fine arts, NJROTC and foreign languages; a strong fine arts program involving art, band, chorus, strings, drama and creative writing; dual credit opportunities through Tri-County Technical College; a teacher cadet leadership program for college credit; and courses offered through our district's career and technology center. These varied academic offerings have produced highly competitive students including two national silver and two national bronze awards winners on the National Spanish Exam; two students participating in the American Chemical Society test; two students accepted to the Governor's School of Math and Science; and two students attending the Performing Arts Academy.

Easley High School students performed above state and national average scores on the ACT and SAT earning the school both an ACT and SAT performance award and a cum laude award for excellent performance on both assessments. Students also performed above state average on both the Physical Science an U.S. History state exams.

Easley High School students not only excel in the classroom, but also in their extracurricular activities. The NJROTC program was selected as a Distinquished Unit for a unprecedented 17th consecutive year. The NJROTC Academic Team finished 1st in all of North and South Carolina (Area Six) and 12th in nation out more than 1600 teams that participated. The boy's cross-country, baseball and golf teams were region champions in their regular season with a combined eight students named all-region players. Football, baseball and boys basketball all finished their regular season undefeated at home with a combined record of 33-0. With the support of active booster clubs in NJROTC, band, strings, and athletics, the variety of extracurricular activities offered at Easley High School showcase our school motto, "Character first, then scholarship."
